

INTERRUPTERS

A FILM BY

Steven James AND Alex Kotlowitz

[C] COMMUNITY CINEMA
FREE COMMUNITY SCREENING EVENT

The Interrupters tells the stories of three "violence interrupters" who, with bravado, humility, and even humor try to protect their Chicago communities from the violence they themselves once employed. From acclaimed director Steve James and bestselling author Alex Kotlowitz, this film is an unusually intimate journey into the stubborn persistence of violence in our cities.

THE INTERRUPTERS WILL AIR NATIONALLY FEBRUARY 14, 2012 ON FRONTLINE. CHECK LOCAL LISTINGS.

FREE COMMUNITY SCREENING

Presented By ITVS, KQED, The Ella Baker Center for Human Rights and Youth ALIVE! in partnership with Urban Peace Movement

Thursday, February 9th

4:00-5:00 PM Light Reception

5:00-7:00 PM Film Screening

7:00-8:00 PM Panel Discussion

Location:

Oakland Museum of California, James Moore Theater
1000 Oak Street
Entrance on 10th Street

Panelists:

Ameena Matthews, Ceasefire Chicago (featured in the film)

Eddie Bocanegra, Ceasefire Chicago (featured in the film)

Kyndra Simmons, Intervention Specialist, Youth ALIVE!

Anthony Del Toro, Street Outreach Leader, California Youth Outreach

Moderator: Abel Habtegeorgis, Media Relation Manager, The Ella Baker Center For Human Rights

For More information visit: <http://oaklandinterrupters.eventbrite.com/>

